Plant field this afternoon the ny football team will meat the warm early decount of the case. The Yale ends and backers and bulkers and battle brilliantly at Boston with the Hanover team holding a slight edge of favoritism due to its constantly increasing exhibition of power and football mentality. Pennsylvania and Columbia, two elevens which have played eratically all season, appear to be more or less equally matched and victory is likely to go to the team which forces the play and the breaks. Based upon the season's records of the two elevens, Syracuse should be an overwhelming favorite in meeting Colgate. Neither the Army nor Navy will play tomorrow.
